- Swindon
- Wokingham

More than ever, organisations are under pressure to obtain the best value from every investment - Learning & Development is no different. In addition to value, flexibility is crucial; learning requirements can quickly evolve with staff and key objectives changing with the needs of the business. To ensure that you derive maximum benefit from your training budget, whilst retaining control and flexibility, Shift F7 has developed 'Learning Credits'

Learning Credits allow you to allocate an education fund to be utilised within a 12 month period. Credits can be used against any Shift F7 course or learning service and also any of the impressive range of training available through our best of breed partner network - on a national basis, both off and onsite. By purchasing a Learning Credits plan, you will be able to realise significant discounts on the cost of your learning needs. The commercial principle is simple - the more credits purchased the higher the discounts included

Course Costs using Learning Credits

Due to the sheer number of courses and learning services available, we do not have a single all encompassing price list. We do however provide credit charge matrices per specialist area.

To give an example, we have a credit matrix for desktop application programmes which include a variety of options for the likes of Microsoft, Crystal and Adobe end user products.

Learning Credit Costs

The commercial principle is simple - the more credits purchased, the higher the discounts included.

The minimum purchase is 200 credits, which costs £5,000 +vat. We have 12 core plans available.

12 Core Plans

- Value 200 - £5,000 +vat
- Value 300 - £7,200 +vat
- Value 400 - £9,200 +vat
- Value 500 - £11,000 +vat

Purchasing Learning Credits

Shift F7 Learning Credits can be purchased in one of two ways:

1. All training needs are identified so the appropriate number of credits can be purchased.
2. Credits are purchased in line with an available budget and requirements are delivered on a priority basis.

Credits are payable in advance and valid for 12 months.
